Numb. 10309.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 30, to Tuesday May 3, 1763.

St. James's, May 3.

THE following Addreſs of the Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Bute, their Chancellor, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne; and to indulge thoſe Sentiments of Gratitude and Admiration, which we find it impoſſible to reſtrain, while we contemplate your Illuſtrious and truly Royal Virtues, ſo ſignally diſplayed in conducting the late happy Event, which hath reſtored Peace to theſe your Kingdoms.

To have raiſed Britain to the higheſt Pitch of Military Honour; to have enlarged her Commerce, extended her Territories, ſuccoured her Allies, and confounded her Foes, forms but a Part of your Majeſty's Glory. It was Your's, from amidſt Victory and Triumph, to look down, with Commiſeration, on thoſe domeſtic Sorrows, which are inſeparable from the Condition of War, however equitable and however ſucceſsful, and which all the Acclamations of Conqueſt are inſufficient to alleviate; and, having amply provided, both for the Glory, and for the Security, of your Country, to put a Stop to the Ravages of the deſtroying Sword.

If the happy Influence of your Majeſty's Example has hitherto appeared ſo conſpicuous in the unparalleled Magnanimity of your Soldiers and Sailors; we have the greateſt Reaſon to hope, from your diſtinguiſhed Humanity, and your favourable Diſpoſition to the Intereſts of Learning, that Britain ſhall ſoon be as eminent in the Arts of Peace, as She now is in Military Renown.

And we, to prove ourſelves not unworthy of that Charge, with which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to intruſt us, ſhall employ our moſt ſtrenuous Endeavours in promoting this important End. To the Youth under our Care we ſhall unfold the Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's Auſpicious Adminiſtration: And we ſhall ever inculcate a grateful Senſe of the many Obligations, which we owe to your Royal Houſe. We ſhall labour to form their Minds to Public and to Private Virtue, and to the Love of thoſe Arts, which embelliſh Life, and enoble the human Soul. Nor can our Doctrines, while this is their Tendency, ever fail of Succeſs, recommended as they are, in ſo ſignal a Manner, by your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Example.

That your Majeſty, rich in domeſtic Bliſs, may long, very long, ſway the Sceptre over a free, an happy, and a grateful People, is the daily, and the earneſt Prayer, of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful and moſt Devoted Subjects,

The Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen.

Signed, in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Univerſity, at Mariſchal College of Aberdeen, the 23d Day of April, 1763 Years, by George Campbell, Principal.

The following Addreſs of the Chancellour, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellour, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellour, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Concluſion of that Definitive Treaty of Peace, which has terminated, with ſo much Happineſs and Glory, a moſt deſtructive and expenſive, though very Juſt and Neceſſary War.

Your Majeſty's Willingneſs to lay down your Arms, even when in the full Career of Conqueſt, has demonſtrated to all the World, that your Majeſty prefers the ſolid Reputation of being the Father and Preſerver of your own People to that fatal Renown, ſo apt to dazzle a young Monarch, of being the Conqueror and Deſtroyer of rival and hoſtile Nations. Nor is the Humanity, the real Magnanimity and Moderation, which firſt prompted your Majeſty to deſire this ſalutary Object of Peace, more to be admired, than the Steadineſs and Wiſdom with which you conducted thoſe Meaſures that led to it. By the full, vigorous and proper Exertion of the Strength of Great Britain, the Two moſt powerful Monarchs in Europe have been compelled to ſubmit to thoſe Terms, which a Paternal Regard for the Welfare of your own People, directed your Majeſty jeſty to demand of them. By making Peace, at a Time when your Arms were every where victorious, your Majeſty has procured ſuch real and ſolid Advantages to your People, as cannot be paralleled by any former Treaty of Peace recorded in the Hiſtory of Great Britain.

We beg Leave, at the ſame Time, moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon the important and rich Conqueſt of the City of Manila, and of the Philippine Iſlands. Your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects cannot contemplate, without the higheſt Pleaſure and Admiration, the immenſe Extent of that Plan, by which your Majeſty has carried on this glorious and ſucceſsful War, and by which the common Enemy has been, at one and the ſame Time, attacked, with equal Judgment, Vigour and good Fortune, in Europe, in the Weſt Indies, and at the furtheſt Extremity of Aſia.

That your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of that Peace, which your truly Royal Generoſity and Goodneſs have beſtowed upon your People; and that the Gratitude and dutiful Affection of your Subjects may ever correſpond to that Fatherly Attention and Regard which your Majeſty has conſtantly ſhewn to their Happineſs, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.
